The Board prescribes the relevant fees, subscription or levies for the purposes of clause 8.1 b) in Schedule 1 of this regulation (as amended by the Board from time to time).

15) Admission, Re-admission and Reinstatement

Clause 8.2 of the FPA Constitution provides that the Board may accept or reject an applicant for membership in its absolute discretion (including where there are any outstanding monetary penalties owing by the applicant to the FPA). The Board is not required to give any reason for the rejection of an applicant but will give each applicant an opportunity to be heard in respect of the application if the applicant requests.

Part D (clauses 13 to 17) of the FPA Constitution sets out the arrangements for cessation of membership.

Clause 16.3 sets out the Board's power to re-admit a person whose membership has previously been terminated under clause 15 or 16 and the Board's discretion to reinstate such a person's professional designation.

The Board's requirements for readmission to membership and reinstatement of professional designation are set out in its Policy: Criteria for Reinstatements. A copy of the policy and the relevant application forms is set out in Schedule 3.

- a) Generally, the Board does not require an applicant for re-admission to meet the eligibility criteria for admission to membership in the sub-category of membership that applies at the time of the re-application and the applicant for re-admission may rely on having met an earlier qualification standard.
- b) However, the Board requires each applicant for re-admission to membership to re-establish at the time of the application for re-admission to membership that he or she is a fit and proper person as set out in Schedule 5.

16) Mode of admission, readmission and reinstatement

- a) All admission or readmission of Members, and any reinstatement of professional designation status shall be made by the Board.
- b) FPA management may make recommendations to the Board concerning the admission, re-admission and reinstatement of persons meeting the admission or re-admission and reinstatement requirements set out in clause 15 above.
- c) The Board may accept or reject an applicant for membership in its absolute discretion (including where there are any outstanding monetary penalties owing by the applicant to the FPA). The Board is not required to give any reason for the rejection of an applicant but will give each applicant an opportunity to be heard in respect of the application if the applicant requests.
- d) Where upon application to the FPA, the Board is satisfied that an applicant for re-admission should be re-admitted to membership in a category of membership, the Board may in its absolute discretion, reinstate the former member's professional designation status.
- e) In exercising the discretion to admit, readmit to membership or to reinstate a professional designation the Board may impose such terms and conditions (either generally as set out in Schedule 6 of this regulation as amended by the Board from time to time, or in any particular case) on the Member's membership and professional designation as the Board thinks fit.
- f) In accordance with clause 8.3 of the FPA Constitution, the FPA must notify an applicant in writing promptly after receipt of an application which has been appropriately completed to the satisfaction of the FPA whether the application was accepted or rejected.
- g) In accordance with the same clause, the FPA must promptly return to an unsuccessful applicant any money paid pursuant to clause 8.1(b) of the FPA Constitution (clause 14b) of this regulation).

17) Registration of admission

- a) An applicant for membership becomes a member upon the entry of the Member's name in the Register.

18) Certificates of Admission to Membership

- a) On the payment of such fee, (if any) as prescribed by the Board from time to time in Schedule 1 and upon the admission and re-admission of any Member, the FPA shall issue a certificate to the Member. This certificate may be hard-copy or electronic. Such certificate shall certify the Member's sub-category of Membership, and the date of the member's admission, or re-admission as the case may be.
- b) The certificate shall bear the signatures of the Chair, or another director nominated by the Board, and the signature of the Chief Executive Officer, which signatures may be printed reproductions, and its issue shall be recorded in a register to be kept for that purpose.
- c) Every such certificate shall remain the property of the FPA and the Board shall be at liberty at any time to call for, and compel, its production and delivery and the Board may alter or amend any such certificate or issue a new certificate in place thereof.
- d) The Board may charge such fee as it may from time to time prescribe for any such new certificate.

19) Change of sub-category of membership

Clause 10 of the FPA Constitution makes provision for change of sub-category of membership.

Clause 10.1 of the FPA Constitution provides that a Member may apply to the FPA at any time to change the Sub-Category to which the Member belongs. This clause further provides that any such application must be in a form as determined by the Board from time to time.

Clause 10.2 of the FPA Constitution provides that the procedure relating to an application for a change of Category or Sub-Category is the same as if it were an application for Membership by a new applicant. If the application is successful, the FPA must update the Register accordingly.

Clause 10.3 of the FPA Constitution provides that if the FPA considers, in its absolute discretion, that a Member has fulfilled the Eligibility Criteria for a superior Sub-Category (e.g. by having satisfied the applicable experience criteria), the FPA may request the Member to provide to the FPA within 7 days of request by the FPA either of the following:

- (a) a duly completed application form for the superior Sub-Category in the form prescribed by the Board from time to time; or
- (b) evidence that the Member does not satisfy the Eligibility Criteria for the superior Sub-Category, and the Member must comply with such request.

Clause 10.4 of the FPA Constitution provides that if the FPA considers, in its absolute discretion, that evidence provided by a Member under clause 10.3 (b) of the FPA Constitution does not establish that the Member does not satisfy the Eligibility Criteria for the superior Sub-Category, the FPA may request the Member to provide an application form in the form specified in clause 10.3 (a) within 7 days of such request by the FPA and the Member must comply with such request.

Clause 10.5 of the FPA Constitution provides that if the FPA considers, in its absolute discretion, that a Member has ceased to fulfil the Eligibility Criteria for a Sub-Category (eg, by failing to satisfy the applicable experience criteria) but satisfies the Eligibility Criteria for an inferior or equivalent Sub-Category, the FPA may request the Member to provide to the FPA within 7 days of request by the FPA either of the following:

- (a) a duly completed application form for the inferior or equivalent Sub-Category in the form determined by the Board from time to time; or
- (b) evidence that the Member has not ceased to fulfil the Eligibility Criteria for the Member's current Sub-Category, and the Member must comply with such request.

Clause 10.6 of the FPA Constitution provides that if the FPA considers, in its absolute discretion, that evidence provided by a Member under clause 10.5 (b) does not establish that the Member continues to fulfil the Eligibility Criteria for the Member's current Sub-Category, the FPA may request the Member to provide an application form in the form specified in clause 10.5 (a) within 7 days of such request by the FPA and the Member must comply with such request.

Clause 10.7 of the FPA Constitution provides that upon receipt from a Member of an application form in accordance with clause 10.3 (a), 10.4, 10.5 (a) or 10.6 which has been appropriately completed to the satisfaction of the FPA within the required timeframe, the FPA may transfer the Member to the superior, inferior or equivalent Category or Sub-Category (as applicable) by updating the Register.

Clause 10.8 of the FPA Constitution provides that if a Member fails to comply with clauses 10.3 to 10.8, the Member's membership will be automatically terminated under clause 16.1 (i) (of the FPA Constitution).

Clause 10.9 of the FPA Constitution provides that where there is a change of Sub-Category of membership of a Member under clauses 10.1 to 10.8 there will be no adjustment to the annual fees, levies and subscription fees paid by the Member to reflect the change of Sub-Category. The Member must pay the annual fees, levies and subscription fees relevant to the new Sub-Category when they are next due for payment by the Member.

20) Member Register

Clause 11.1 of the FPA Constitution provides that the FPA must record in the Register:
